

Dear Parents:

Our Memory Verse this week:

"Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy." I Corinthians 14:1

Today we discovered:

- That God has many languages
- Hearing & speaking God's heart comes from a close relationship with Him
- Prophecy builds up the Body of Christ
- Everyone needs to hear what God sees and thinks about them
- God's words are good, because He is Good!
- We only speak good things
- We do not tell the future, scary things or corrections

Scripture Study:

Genesis 37:6-7,9	I Samuel 3:4,8,10	Ezekiel 1:28	Isaiah 1:18
Ezra 6:17	Jeremiah 1:11,13	Matthew 10:1	Luke 8:43-49
John 15:15	I Corinthians 2:14-16	I Corinthians 12:8	I Corinthians 14:31
Acts 2:17	Romans 15:4	II Timothy 3:16	Revelations 9:6

Parent's Points to Ponder:

One of the most effective tools for building up the body of Christ is the gift of prophecy. When this gift is received and released within an intimate relationship with our Heavenly Father, there is a powerful demonstration of exhortation, edification and comfort (I Corinthians 14:3). The gift of prophecy helps to create a Kingdom culture that draws children, not only closer to God, but to one another as well. When children continually speak what the Father sees in one another in an atmosphere of love, a culture of honor and respect is created.

Ask Your Child:

Ask your child if they gave and/or received a word from God today. Ask them how they felt when this happened. Have them share with you what some of God's languages are ("Pictures", "Dreams", "Visions", "Colors", "Bible", "Numbers", "Impressions", and "Hearing")

Home Activity:

Set up a family time where the family members can give and receive prophetic words from each other. Write these words down so each person has their own "word" to read and re-read. Your child can post them on the "Heaven's Window" bulletin board or write them in their journal.

A Parent's Blessing:
 (Your child's name), I bless your spirit to hear this instruction from God's Word in I Corinthians 14:1: "Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy." I bless your spirit, that in the pursuit and realm of the Father's love, you would receive and flow in God's wonderful gift of prophecy.
 (Your child's name), I bless you that in your hearing the Father's heart and love for others, you are able to convey His words of comfort, edification, and exhortation. I bless the fruit of this gift in you, that the body of Christ would be strengthened, encouraged, and be drawn closer to their Heavenly Papa. I bless you in the name of Jesus, Amen.
